

'GREATEST GIVE EVER'

RAISE MONEY TO SPONSOR A CHILD

LIKE NATE, ONE OF 480 WEEKLY CLIENTS

Nate stopped talking around 18 months. After 7 months of therapy, he was still rarely even pointing at things.

Then he began coming to Ironstone. His first word was "Neigh." He began to say, "I love you, Mom."

But without

Sponsor a Child, Nate's mom, Courtney, would not have been able to afford his therapy.

"He starts riding horses at Ironstone and he can't stop talking. It's the greatest gift ever," she says.

"It's like witnessing a miracle every time you go."

Courtney Buckley, mother

ABOUT IRONSTONE FARM

We use the dynamic power of horseback riding and the environment of a farm to combine several traditional therapies into one unique, effective experience. Top doctors and medical institutions refer clients to Ironstone because of its success.

Children with special needs learn to walk. Non-verbal people begin speaking. And coming to the farm, rather than an impersonal clinic, makes therapy a "want to" event rather than a "have to" session.

Additional programs offer free retreats for survivors of cancer, combat veterans, teens at risk, elders with memory issues and other groups.
